

Fasco America is once again hiring the top talent in the marketplace. The addition of these bright new stars adds to our parent company's 100 plus years of manufacturing experience and design innovation to provide you with the industry's most extensive product selection, new fastening solutions, and friendly, knowledgeable, and proactive customer service.

We are delighted to announce the following addition to our ranks:

James Thompson has been hired to fill the position of Regional Sales Manager for the South Western United States.

James' duties will include introducing new products to Fasco America distributors and dealers as well as leading customer sales training meetings, performing jobsite demonstrations, and providing sales support.

James comes to Fasco America with a proven track record of dealer and distributor sales, finely honed customer service skills, and close familiarity with the South Western region. While in his previous position, James increased sales by an average of 25% per year by utilizing end user job site demos (350 plus demos last year alone) and customer product knowledge meetings.

James can be reached by email at jthompson@fascoamerica.com, by cell at 979.616.0332 or by fax at 979-541-5925.

Fasco America as a unit of the BECK Fastener Group is aggressively evolving to meet the changing needs of the market. We join with James in looking forward to working with you in the coming year.

Thank you and best regards,

Jerry C. Koontz
